

#WDAD2022 Video Competition FAQs!

Videos are due by 3/1/22 (ideally) or on topic date

Why a video competition?

The #WDAD2022 Team is holding a video competition to crowdsource video and infographic content. This content will help build #Delirium awareness & action to stop #Delirium now, and into the future. We want your #delirium superpowers!!

Where will the videos be shared?

Your video* will be shared via iDelirium Twitter, Instagram, Facebook, YouTube, and maybe even TikTok!!

How do I (we) win?

Everyone who enters will receive a certificate recognizing their submission. The video that receives the most social media engagement (# of retweets, shares, likes) AND is deemed most creative by the WDAD2022 team will receive 1 conference registration to a #Delirium conference in their country of residence.

Video Format

3 minutes is ideal (or shorter). If longer, please make the last 30 seconds take away points.

Content of video is flexible (i.e., recorded formal presentation, parody, walk through how-to, interview, Q&A, tell a story, etc.)

Mp4 is the preferred file format for uploading

Can I submit more than 1 video?

You can submit as many videos* as you want!

Why the asterisk * by video?

Please be as creative as you want to be while making the video. Also, please be professional. We will not share videos that are unprofessional.
